a benefit for

For over 100 years, preparing children for success

The Kaka'ako Improvement Association (KIA) was formed in 1987 as a group of business and property owners in the Kaka'ako area for the purpose of informing, supporting and legislating on behalf of its members. The Kaka'ako area has been and continues to undergo both structural and cultural changes that could affect individuals, organizations and companies.

Since 2007, although not for a few years after 9-11, the KIA Invitational Golf Tournament has raised $88,000 and benefited a variety of nonprofits in Kakaako, including the KCAA Muriel Preschool and the Children's Discovery Center.

KCAA opened its Kakaako school in 1898 on South Street. The name "Muriel" came later. The agency's founders remarked in 1899, "The kindergarten has been the opening wedge in the district where it has been placed." In one short year, the South Street School had a girls' club, boys' club, singing class, and mothers' clubs. In 1901 the South Street School moved to the basement of Kawaiahao Church and was called the Kawaiahao Kindergarten. In 1911, a new building was given to KCAA by Miss Kate Atherton for the Kakaako Community. It was re-named Muriel School, in memory of Miss Atherton's niece, and is still called that today. From 1967-1992, Muriel School was located on Ilaniwai Street then moved to its present location on the ground floor of the Kamakee Vista Building on Kawaiahao Street in 1992.

This new setting for the school was made possible through a unique collaboration among the Atherton Family Foundation, the city government, and a private developer. The Kakaako Improvement Association, an organization of businesses in the community, has named KCAA Muriel Preschool as the beneficiary of several benefit golf tournaments, which has assisted the school with repairs and beautification projects.

Most recently, efforts are underway to make playground improvements including a sun shade, additional equipment and a pedestrian entrance from Queen Street to respond to our changing Kakaako! KIA's donation from this golf tournament will help greatly towards that goal on South Street.
